

Circular from our National Spiritual Advisor, November 2019

Good morning fellow Cursillistas

Firstly, please let me introduce myself. On Saturday at our “Zoom” National Conference I was commissioned as the new National Spiritual Advisor and it is my plan to intentionally pray for all of you on a regular basis.

The Rev Jane Lamont

During the conference the issue of physical distancing came up and talks on how we can still “do” Cursillo during these troubling times. Although our Three Days are cancelled for the immediate future, we agreed that though these may be the mountain top experiences of Cursillo, the very bedrock on which they stand is the Fourth Day and the Small Group Reunions. These frequent short bursts of love and support, ensure our perseverance and spiritual growth, keeping us accountable to each other and to God. Many of us have found that with Zoom, What’s App, Facetime and other platforms we have managed to link in with others even though the stringent lockdowns precluded face to face. This reminded me of the Scripture from Hebrews

Hebrews 10:24-25 And let us consider how we may spur one another on toward love and good deeds, not giving up meeting together, as some are in the habit of doing, but encouraging one another—and all the more as you see the Day approaching.

So my prayer for you this month is that we can still find time and courage and energy to meet with and pray for our fellow Christians, so please pray with me:

“Heavenly Lord and Saviour, you are our Creator God who has given us the gift of creativity. We thank you and praise you that you have provided us with new ways of connecting and have given us the desire to think outside of the box so that we may continue our worship of you. Teach us, we pray, in finding ways we can still meet together. Open up ways of worshipping you, un-thought of in times past. Let us meet on the beach, at picnics, in the park, in cafes and pubs anywhere which is legal and safe to do so, that we may support and love and encourage each other through study, piety and apostolic action. May we use this time of being a visual witness to our community of our faith in our Lord Jesus. Amen”

Blessings and shalom
Jane
